GRANNY SMITH AU COLLEGE LA PLATIERE

Ce jeudi 11 février 2010 après-midi, les élèves de 4e et 3e du collège La Platière avaient rendez-vous avec Granny Smith : une grand-mère anglaise bien sympathique. Malgré la neige et le mauvais temps elle est bien venue.

Granny Smith c'est aussi le nom du spectacle en anglais présenté par Mme Tracey Boot, actrice anglaise de la Compagnie Théâtre Transformations de Chambéry. Ce spectacle intimiste et comique a plongé les élèves dans l'univers quotidien et la culture d'un personnage britannique... Cela a été l'occasion d'une rencontre entre les élèves et le personnage « Granny Smith » : une grand-mère anglaise qui porte un demi-masque et qui vit chez elle. Cette grand mère active et vivante leur a parlé d'elle-même, de sa famille, de ses amis, de ses activités, et a fait participer les élèves au spectacle en leur posant des questions. Ces derniers ne sont pas prêts de l'oublier.

Lettres d'élèves

Here is the summary about Granny Smith from 4e2 :

Cédric enjoyed the beginning : Granny Smith woke up, she was wearing a night dress and she was suprised when she saw the spectators.

Some spectators went on stage. One spectator chose the recipe.

We learnt how to cook an apple crumble.

Florian loved the recipe.

Granny Smith

We liked Granny Smith, she jumped everywhere.

She was energetic.

She made the pupils participate.

She made the pupils cook an apple crumble.

She made the pupils peel apples.

She made the pupils read a recipe.

She made the pupils do exercices.

Florine

GRANNY SMITH

We liked Granny Smith. The actress was good. She was funny, talkative, sporty and a little crazy.

The story was original. We liked her mask and old-fashioned clothes.

Alexandre was a bit disappointed because he couldn't understand everything.

Rémi, 4e1

I'm crazy about Granny Smith show. It was funny !

Rémi

Granny Smith

Granny Smith was funny, she was wearing an apron.

She made lots of gestures to explain words :

-Core : enlever les pépins

-Sprinkle : saupoudrer

-Keep going : continue

-Warm up : s'échauffer

And she made us pronounce properly :

– crumbs : miettes

– 8 servings (pronounce the s)

– th : three is different from tree.

A performance at school

On Thursday, February 11th, an actress came to our school « La Platière ». Her stage name is Tracey Boot. She was born in Scotland, and now she lives in Chambéry and she has two daughters. The performance was in the dining hall, four classes were here. The performance was given by the "Conseil Général du Rhône". The scenery was simple, but really funny, it was the backstage too. First granny Smith had a mask, and we couldn't see her face. She was wearing a dress and a hat. She played a scene with 3 students to cook an apple crumble. She used apples and an apron to work. After she spoke about tea and 2 students sang : it was a little musical. The performance was really funny and the audience laughed. Finally, all the spectators loved this performance, it was a good surprise.

Granny smith

The play was in the dining hall. It was on Thursday February 11th. The play was bought by the Conseil General du Rhône. The spectators were the teenagers from 4ème and 3ème. The actress's name's Granny Smith. She was born in Scotland and she has two children. She started theatre when was three years old. The play was about cooking (crumble) and songs. The props were a book, aprons, apples, and chairs. It was a good play. The play was funny and surprising. The audience was happy. Cindy

A performance of Granny Smith took place on Thursday, February 11th in the canteen. This play was offered by the « Conseil Général ».

First Granny Smith (her real name is Tracey Boot and she is Scottish) the actress played a comedy, then she did a crumble with the people of the audience. Somebody cut apples and sang, and we prepared a crumble.

It was very funny, all the people laughed. The audience was very happy !

Finally everybody applauded !!! Maïssane CORRECTION Performance of Granny Smith Yesterday, at 3 :15 p.m, we watched a comedy of Granny Smith. This performance was bought by the Conseil Général. Granny Smith is a woman. She's English but she lives in Chambéry. She was born in Scotland. The audience was watching her when she woke up. She asked Amina to read the cook-book. She asked Mehdi, Léa and Dylan to help her to peel the apples. Malek and Cyndie did the mixture. She prepared some black-tea. It wasn't an English tea and she didn't like it. I loved this performance because some of us took part in the play.

Granny Smith,
a funny comedy

On the eleventh of February, an actress, Tracey Boot, came to the canteen of our school to perform a play. The performance was bought by the « Conseil Général ». The actress is British but she lives in Chambéry, France. She wore a mask.

The play took place at Granny Smith's home. Granny Smith, a grand-mother, was waiting for her best friend for the afternoon tea. First, Granny woke up. She put her shoes on and she trained. She also asked us to train. That was funny. Second, she prepared an apple crumble. Then, she asked pupils to peel apples. Granny asked another pupil to mix the ingredients and to cut apples and butter too.

To conclude, I liked this play, it's a very funny play.

Pauline

GRANNY SMITH'S RECIPE

On Thursday, February 11th, there was a play called « Granny Smith » at the canteen. It was given by the « Conseil Général ».

There were four classes : 4<sup>1</sup>, 4<sup>2</sup>, 3<sup>1</sup> and 3<sup>2</sup>.

When we arrived, the teachers were taking pictures of the scenery. It was a kitchen and a living-room. At the beginning of the play, the actress imitated her clock. The props were cups of tea, food, chairs, books, clothes... She asked many pupils to come on stage to make an apple crumble. Everybody was happy and laughed.

At the end, some pupils asked questions about her life and her job, her family...

Actually, her name is Tracey Boot. She lives in Chambéry but she comes from Scotland. She's English but she speaks French too.

The audience has applauded her for this funny time. Marine

Granny Smith's performance

We attended a performance on Thursday, February 11th in the dining hall.

The performance was about Granny Smith and the actress was called Tracey Boot. She lives in Chambéry and she was born in Scotland. She is 42 (forty-two) years old.

Granny Smith was a grand mother.

She made an apple crumble with my friends and 2 (two) pupils sang on stage.

My opinion about the performance is very good because Tracey Boot played well the character of Granny smith. It was « Conseil Général du Rhône » who paid for the performance.

An actress at school.

On Thursday, February 11th , we saw a performance of « Granny Smith » at school (at the canteen).

This show was given by the « Conseil général du Rhône ».

The scene took place at Granny Smith's home.

The actress was Tracey Boot. She is English but she lives in Chambery.

Her job is being an actress, but she is not famous.

During the performance, she called the people to help her to make an apple crumble. She spoke French but with an English accent.

She made us laugh !

Granny SMITH at school

On Thursday 11th February, we saw a comedy called Granny SMITH at our school. On the stage, there was a living-room and a kitchen. We made an apple crumble with Granny SMITH and afterwards Mehdi and Dylan sang on the stage. The stage was in the canteen. The actress had a mask and she was wearing a very old-fashioned dress. She was not pretty but she was very fond of sport. This performance is good. I liked this comedy.
